8. Prohibited Transaction Signature Page

It is important to understand that “You” and “your HSA” are different, and your trustee or custodian acts on behalf of your HSA based on your direction. By inference, it is clear that “you” or any other disqualified person can never “buy from” or “sell to” your own HSA.

You must open a Health Savings Account, and then direct the purchase of an asset through a direction of investment form. A prohibited transaction is generally defined as the improper use of your HSA by you or any disqualified person or entity.

Disqualified persons and/or entities include, but are not limited to:

- The HSA holder and his or her spouse
- The HSA holder’s ancestors, lineal decedents and their spouses
- Investment advisors or managers
- Any corporation, partnership, trust or investment in which the HSA holder already has a 50% or greater interest
- Anyone providing services to the HSA such as the trustee or custodian
- Your plan may NOT, directly or indirectly, buy, sell, exchange, or lease any property to or from you or a disqualified person and/or entity. This includes lending money or extending credit. Your plan cannot furnish goods, services, or facilities to you or another disqualified person and/or entity. Neither you nor another disqualified person and/or entity can transfer assets to each other or use/benefit from any assets in the plan.

For a full explanation of disqualified persons and/or entities, please read Internal Revenue Code (IRC) §4975.
www.irs.gov

Prohibited transactions (self-dealing) are those transactions that violate the basic intent of your HSA. They do not impose unacceptable limitations. On the contrary, there are numerous methods which do not violate the law that can be used to meet your long term objectives, and allow you to get the most out of your plan. A complete understanding of the applicable rules is encouraged, in order that you realize all the benefits available to you in directing your HSA. Please contact an ERISA attorney or your tax advisor with questions regarding your personal situation.

Loans to HSAs:

IRC §§511-514 allow for non-recourse lending to HSAs for the purchase of real estate in HSAs:

- Loans must have no recourse against the HSA, the HSA holder, or other disqualified persons or entities
- Loans must be made by a third party not related to the HSA holder
- HSAs with loans on assets owned by the HSA must file a 990-T unrelated debt-financed tax return annually. This tax return is procured by the HSA owner, then signed and submitted by the HSA administrator with any taxes owed by the HSA. Taxes due may not be paid outside the HSA.

Please sign this document and return to Mountain West IRA, Inc. indicating that you understand these Prohibited Transaction and Self-Dealing Issues.

HSA Application

Custodian and Administrator: The Custodian for my account will be Mainstar Trust and the Administrator for my account will be Mountain West IRA, Inc. I understand that the Custodian and Administrator may resign by giving me written notice at least 30 days prior to the effective date of such resignation. I understand that if I fail to notify the Administrator of the appointment of a successor trustee or Custodian within such 30 day period, then the assets held in my account by the Custodian (whether in cash or an investment or real property, wherever located and regardless of value) will be distributed to me outright and free of trust and I will be wholly responsible for the tax consequences of such distribution.

No Tax, Legal or Investment Advice: I acknowledge and agree that the Custodian and the Administrator do not provide or assume responsibility for any tax, legal or investment advice with respect to the investments and assets in my account, and will not be liable for any loss which results from my exercise of control over my account. I understand that my account is self-directed and I take complete responsibility for any investments I choose for my account. I further understand and agree that neither the Custodian nor the Administrator sells or endorses any investment products. If the services of the Custodian and the Administrator were marketed, suggested or otherwise recommended by any person or entity such as a financial representative or investment promoter, I understand that such persons are not in any way agents, employees, representative, affiliates, partners, independent contractors, consultants, or subsidiaries of the Custodian or the Administrator, and that the Custodian and Administrator are not responsible for and are not bound by any statements, representations, warranties or agreements made by any such person or entity. I agree to consult with my own CPA, attorney, financial planner or other professional prior to directing the Administrator to make any investment in my account.

Prohibited Transactions: I understand that my account is subject to the provisions of § 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code, which defines certain prohibited transactions. I acknowledge and agree that neither the Custodian nor the Administrator will make any determination as to whether any transaction or investment in my account is prohibited under sections 4975, 408(e) or 408A, or under any other state or federal law. I accept full responsibility to ensure that none of the investments in my account will constitute a prohibited transaction and that the investments in my account comply with all applicable federal and state laws, regulations and requirements.

Unrelated Business Income Tax: I understand that my account is subject to the provisions of Internal Revenue code sections 511-514 relating to Unrelated Business Taxable Income (UBTI) of tax-exempt organizations. I agree that if I direct the Administrator to make an investment in my account which generates UBTI I will be responsible for preparing or having prepared the required IRS Form 990-T tax return, an application for an Employer Identification Number (EIN) for my account and any other documents that may be required, and to submit them to the Administrator for filing with the Internal Revenue Service at least ten (10) days prior to the date on which the return is due, along with an appropriate directive authorizing the Administrator to execute the forms on behalf of my account and to pay the applicable tax from the assets in my account. I understand that the Custodian and the Administrator do not make any determination of whether or not investments in my account generate UBTI; have no duty to and do not monitor whether or not my account has incurred UBTI; and do not prepare Form 990-T on behalf of my account.

Valuations: I understand that the assets in my account are required to be valued annually at the end of each calendar year in accordance with section 408(i) and other guidance provided by the IRS, and that the total value of my account will be reported to the IRS on form 5498 each year. I agree to provide the year end value of any illiquid and/or non-publicly traded investments, which may include without limitation limited partnerships, limited liability companies, privately held stock, real estate investment trusts, hedge funds, real estate, secured and unsecured promissory notes and any other investments as the Custodian shall designate, by no later than December 15th of each year, with substantiation attached to support the value provided. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Custodian and the Administrator from any and all losses, expenses, settlements, or claims with regard to investment decisions, distribution values, tax reporting or any other financial impact or consequence relating to or arising from the valuation of assets in my account.

Indemnification: I agree that the Custodian and the Administrator have no duty other than to follow my written instructions, and will be under no duty to question my instructions and will not be liable for any investment losses sustained by me or my account under any circumstances. I understand that the Custodian and the Administrator are acting only as my agent and nothing will be construed as conferring fiduciary status on the Custodian or the Administrator.

I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Custodian and the Administrator from any and all claims, damages, liability, actions, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) and any loss to my account as a result of any action taken (or omitted to be taken) pursuant to and/or in connection with any investment transaction directed by me or my investment advisor or resulting from serving as the Custodian or the Administrator, including, without limitation, claims, damages, liability, actions and losses asserted by me.

Electronic Communications, Signatures and Records: I acknowledge and agree that my account will be subject to the provisions of the federal Electronic Signature in Global and National Commerce Act (ESIGN Act, as contained in 15 U.S.C. 7001), as those laws pertain to electronic communication, electronic signatures and electronic storage of Custodial Account records. I understand that, in lieu of the retention of the original records, the Administrator and Custodian may cause any or all of their records, and records at any time in their custody, to be photographed or otherwise reproduced to permanent form, and any such photograph or reproduction shall have the same force and effect as the original thereof and may be admitted in evidence equally with the original if permitted by law.

No FDIC Insurance for Investments: I recognize that investments purchased and/or held within my account: 1) are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC); 2) are not a deposit or other obligation of, or guaranteed by, either the Custodian or the Administrator; and 3) are subject to investments risks, including possible loss of the principal amount invested.

Responsibility for Determining Eligibility and Tax Consequences: I assume complete responsibility for 1) determining that I am eligible to make a contribution to my account; 2) ensuring that all contributions I make are within the limits set forth by the relevant sections of the Internal Revenue Code, and 3) the tax consequences of any contribution (including a rollover contribution) and distributions.
